Dave Yonenaka from Grass Valley and Seth Cantu from Lake County, Adventist Community Services, tour the warehouse of donated items.

Greetings Everyone!

We are happy to share with you our progress concerning a large portion of the left over items from our Yard Sale. After packing most of the clothing, blankets, sleeping bags & small household items in plastic bins, we labeled them with the logos & individual donor names from our community. Laura Grout, at NCCA, was able to secure a driver, Dave Yonenaka, owner of Fine Line Joinery, to help transport the items to Lake County. Thursday, 10/15/15, Dave, Alyssa & Kiyo Yonenaka, along with Donna & Bob Raibley loaded up Dave's truck & trailer. On Friday, 10/16/15, Dave Yonenaka & Donna Raibley set out at 6:30 A.M. to Lake County to meet with Seth Cantu (Volunteer with the Adventist Community Services & site manager). The items were delivered to a local Lakeport warehouse designated as a holding place until distribution. As we pulled up the Conservation Corp. from Ukiah greeted us with pallets & manual forklifts and unloaded the items and took them to be sorted. The warehouse was very large and filled with donations from all over the state. It was wonderful to see what others are doing to help their community. It was an organized effort and we felt very grateful to be a part of it. ALL OSEC COMMUNITY MEETINGS HAVE BEEN POSTPONED, until further notice. Thanks to everyone for your continued support!
